

40,000 GERMANS VIEW BODY OF EX-EMPEROR

Augusta Victoria Rests in Antique Temple at Potsdam, Suburb of Berlin.

BERLIN, April 16.—Augusta Victoria, former Empress of Germany, rests in the Antique Temple at Potsdam, former royal suburb of Berlin, after a day of mourning ceremonies which recalled the most important days of the Hohenzollern reign.

The funeral was marked by the absence of any of the royal family, which in other days would have been prominent in the ceremony. Neither the ex-emperor nor his eldest son was present.

But in addition to the four sons who were permitted to be present, and scores of princes and princesses, more or less remotely connected with the former ruling house, hundreds of members of the ex-emperor's household, and scores of military and naval officers, and a large number of the former ruling house, were present.

The day passed without any disturbing incident.

The mourning is to be closed until the permanent crypt, which is also to contain the body of Wilhelm, is completed.

The twenty-second annual convention of the National Electrical Contractors' Association will be held in Richmond, May 12 and 13, at the headquarters at the Jefferson Hotel.

For several years the Chamber of Commerce has had invitations to the convention in an effort to bring the conference to this city. There probably will be several hundred delegates to the convention, representing most of the prominent electrical dealers in the country.

U. S. NAVY WILL ENGAGE IN SERIES OF AERIAL DRILLS

First Will Be Dirigible Flight From England to America—Maneuvers Expected to Have Effect on Forthcoming International Disarmament Discussion.

By Robert J. Bender.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The United States Navy, during the present year will engage in a number of aerial maneuvers, which may have an important bearing upon forthcoming international disarmament discussions. The first of these will be announced soon by the navy and will be a dirigible flight from England to America.

The first of the series of contemplated air ventures is a trans-Pacific flight which will be made by the navy's "Z-1," a dirigible now being built at Philadelphia, and for which a long cruise is being planned.

In the case of all of these there is no idea of regarding the ventures as purely "spectacular." They are being planned as experiments having an important bearing on the nation's armament plans. To build the "R-38," which, when it reaches this country, will be known as the "Z-2." It was necessary to go abroad both for facilities and technical training. Germany, birthplace of the famous Zeppelins, was not an available market, so the "R-38" was built in England by the same firm that constructed the R-34, the British dirigible, which successfully crossed the Atlantic and returned. This great sea-scout of the United States Navy is now so near ready for her demonstration that officials have sent word across for information as to just when the flight may be planned, so that official announcement may be made here.

Fourteen officers and fifty-eight men of the navy have been at Howden, England, for months, taking training in the navigation of rigid airships. Meantime work has gone forward steadily on a huge double-hanger, the largest in the world, now virtually completed at Lakehurst, N. J.

The R-38 will be housed in this hanger upon her arrival in this country, and the Z-1 will be housed beside her, when the former is completed. Various possible experimental cruises have been considered for the Z-1, among them a journey to some point in Southern waters.

In a letter to Brigadier Herbert

Roberts, of Cincinnati, divisional commander of the Salvation Army for western Ohio and Kentucky, President Harding says: "Having seen very much of the useful and patriotic work of the Salvation Army in all parts of the country and having an opportunity to familiarize myself with its work, both here and abroad during the war, I am very glad, indeed, to give my indorsement to your campaign for extension of its efforts. The Salvation Army surely deserves we of all appreciative and loyal Americans and I wish you success."

Many thousands of people who have been sufferers from headaches and other discomforts caused by constipation, dizziness, spells, pains in the back, rheumatism, lazy livers, disordered stomachs, sleepless nights and loss of appetite as well as no ambition to work—speak in glowing terms of the wonderful results that have been obtained from the tonic VEENOLAK.

We can produce many testimonials from our files containing personal letters from users who cannot seem to thank us enough for offering them the opportunity of regaining their health in such a simple manner as was brought about through the introduction of VEENOLAK.

There is nothing mysterious about VEENOLAK. The whole thing that makes it lose much of its mysterious powers is the fact that VEENOLAK is so simple in ingredient as the day is long. Nature plans to take care of her children. And in making VEENOLAK we go directly to nature.

Nature grows the herbs, berries, roots and the grapes from which the juice is used in VEENOLAK. In other words, we've permitted nature—in bottle form—to care for the medicinal needs of people who are suffering from disorders.

Every ingredient in VEENOLAK has been selected for a definite purpose. And each ingredient carries out its purpose.

Don't permit the millstone of bad health to be tied around your neck. If you are not feeling in tip-top condition see that a bottle of VEENOLAK is brought into your home today—for your use. It will give you most gratifying results and you'll be glad that such a remedy is offered you.

VEENOLAK is sold in this town by Tragle Drug Co., Richmond, Va.—Adv.
